Herewith Attachment to EOGA-4684, 16 January 1970

26 December 1969:

A short conversation between Anatoliy Leonidovich ZLOBIN [] Chief, SOVAG/Hamburg, and Vladimir Borisovich KUKIN [] c/o SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg reveals that Aleksandr Ivanovich KOLTYPIN [] , Chief, SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg, is going to return from Moscow on 31 December 1969. (Field Comment: KOLTYPIN attended an annual SOVFRAKHT conference which commenced in Moscow on 23 December 1969. He was accompanied by his wife. KOLTYPIN is due to be replaced sometime in January/February by one Vernaliy Ernestovich GIECHUNTZ.)

29 December 1969:

Vadim SHUTOV of SOVFRAKHT/London informs KUKIN (SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg) that the Chief of the ANGLO-SOVIET SHIPPING CO., London, fmz ZVONKIN, is going to attend a conference (unidentified) in Hamburg on 13 January 1970. SHUTOV, who is going to send money with ZVONKIN, wants KUKIN to purchase a Dual stereo set for him and have NOSTRAK/Hamburg (MORFLOT Agent) ship it to him aboard the Soviet vessel MS "ANGARSK".

5 January 1970:

A conversation between KOLTYPIN (SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg) and Anatoliy PRIBYLOV (SOVFRAKHT/Paris) reveals that SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg has failed to pay taxes (Lohnsteuer) for their two local employees (Harriet DETSCH, secretary, and Irma NEUBERT, cleaning woman) over the past ten years. The local German Finanzamt is now requesting approximately DM 100,000.- in back payment. KOLTYPIN has reported this "surprise" to Moscow, and has turned the matter over to the lawyers of the Soviet Trade Mission (STM), Cologne.

6 January 1970:

A conversation between KOLTYPIN and SOVFRAKHT/Moscow reveals that plans are under way to assign a third male representative (fmz LNU) to SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg who is going to have his desk in the office of NOSTRAK [] . The local Baubehoerde in Hamburg has turned down plans to build an attachment (extra apartment) to the SOVFRAKHT/Hamburg building, and KOLTYPIN has requested DM 10,000.- in order to find an apartment for the newcomer elsewhere. Moscow has already approved DM 12,000.- for the purchase of an automobile for this individual.

6 January 1970:

Vladislav Aleksandrovich MIKHEYEV (STM/Cologne) informs KOLTYPIN that a crew member of the MS "BALAKLAVA" - Sergey Dimitrievich SHURGIN - is hospitalized in the Wilhelmsburger Krankenhaus (Hamburg 93) with a leg injury, and asks that the sailor be visited and taken back aboard his vessel which is due to return to Hamburg on or about 7 January 1970.

6 January 1970:

KOLTYPIN informs PRIBYLOV (SOVFRAKT/Paris) that the President of SOVFRAKT/Moscow, A. A. SAVELYEV, is going to retire on 10 January 1970. According to KOLTYPIN's opinion, Nikolai Ivanovich SUYEV (First Vice President) is going to succeed SAVELYEV.

6 January 1970:

KOLTYPIN informs Yevgeniy Kalinkovich KORNEYCHUK (SOVFRAKT/Rotterdam) that a "Canadian Shipping Conference" is going to take place in Hamburg on 18-19 February 1970. (No other details.)

7 January 1970:

KOLTYPIN learns from Sergey KAUSOV (SOVFRAKT/Paris) that Lev MALININ - a recently arrived SOVFRAKT employee - is going to be used mainly as a "liaison man" between SOVFRAKT/Paris and the Commercial Section of the Soviet Embassy/Paris.

7 January 1970:

A conversation between Harriet DETSCH (secretary, SOVFRAKT/Hamburg) and her husband reveals that they are planning to take a cruise aboard the Soviet vessel MS "TARAS SHEVCHENKO" in March 1970. The cruise, which will take them to North Africa, is being organized by NECKERMAN/Frankfurt/M. (Field Comment: We are instructing CARMEL to find out more about this and, if possible, may send him on the cruise as a means of consolidating his developing relationship to the DETSCH's.)
